To a Happy, Healthy 2016

Villages Health medical providers share their plans, goals and resolutions for the new year.

"To start volunteering again with either Special Olympics, Give Kids The World or Make-A-Wish Foundation."

MARCY ANDERSON
clerical supervisor,
Specialty Care Center

"To exercise more and to learn to play golf. Being in this golfing community, I think that's a good goal."

DAPHNE BAGWELL
registered nurse,
clinical supervisor,
Colony Care Center

"More quality time with my family. I have two teenage boys and time is running out to be with them."

SHAY BLANCO
certified medical assistant
and X-ray technician,
Belleview Care Center

"To give back. I am looking at volunteering for a free clinic, mission work and working with a crisis pregnancy center."

SUSAN BONENCLARK
physician assistant,
Belleview Care Center

"Lose some weight. Get back into the gym some more and walk at least 5 miles a day."

AUDREY CARTER
clerical assistant,
Santa Barbara Care Center

"Go back to school to get my business degree and find a place here that I can benefit and grow."

LAWANDA HANFORD
registered medical assistant,
Belleview Care Center

"To get out and travel more, experience more of Florida. There's parts of the state I'd love to see."

JENNIFER JORDAHL
advanced registered nurse practitioner, Creekside Care Center

"To spend more time with my husband and children. To build memories, like going on small vacations and things like that."

FELICIA LAUNDRY
medical coder,
Colony Care Center

"To improve at softball and help our company softball team win a game this year."

PAUL LUZYNSKI
clerical supervisor,
Colony Care Center

"To live more in the present moment and focus on the important things in life — family and friends."

SHEENA MCGONIGLE
radiologic technologist,
Specialty Care Center

"To express my gratitude to people more frequently than I have before. To give back and make people feel good."

DR. COLLETTE MERCIER
Mulberry Grove Care Center

"To live without regret for anything that happened yesterday, but live with anticipation of something amazing that's going to happen today."

DR. HEIDI ZIMMERMAN
Colony Care Center

"I really want to keep in touch with my family in Ohio and Georgia."

JILLIAN O'NEILL
operator, Pinellas Care Center

"To be kinder to myself and treat myself better. That really means exercising more and giving myself more time."

JENNIFER PAVLIK
Mulberry Grove Care Center manager

"To continue to make sure my patients make the best, most well-informed decisions about their hearing health care possible."

DR. LAURA PRATESI
audiologist,
The Villages Health

"I want to exercise more, be a better husband and father and continue to improve as a physician."

DR. ROBERT REILLY
medical director,
Creekside Care Center

"My family's resolution will be to finish construction on the house we're building and to have Thanksgiving there next year."

KRISTINA ROSE
medical records,
Specialty Care Center

"Lose 20 pounds and become healthier. I want to start exercising and walking more regularly."

SUSAN SHAW
patient services
representative,
Creekside Care Center

"My youngest daughter's going to be a senior in high school, so to spend as much time with her as possible."

RN DENEAL SULLIVAN
Pinellas Care Center manager

"I'm going to complete the 2016 Running of the Squares events and do better each time."

AMY WIXTED
wellness and education
manager, The Villages Health

"Maybe now that I've been in The Villages for a year, it's time to learn golf."

DR. ASHOK OJHA
Santa Barbara Care Center
